

OUR LADY OF THE LUPINS

Our Lady loves the lily fair
Who stands so tall and white
With head bowed down in constant prayer
To Christ, the King of light.

The daisies in the meadow grass
Right dear she holds them all,
And smiles if she would hap' to pass
The roses on the wall.